

FSU's Criminal Justice Ranked #1 Affordable Criminal Justice Degree Bachelor Programs

To rank the most affordable criminal justice degree online, Bachelor's Degree Center editors started with only accredited, trustworthy institutions, because affordability isn't everything. However, it is the key component of the most affordable ranking, so programs in the BDC Most Affordable Criminal Justice Degree ranking are presented from highest to lowest tuition (as reported to IPEDS).

Fayetteville State University's BS in Criminal Justice is certified by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences (ACJS). It was the first Criminal Justice program in North Carolina, but it has evolved into a robust program with a Bachelor of Science degree as well as a Criminal Justice minor. The university also offers an online option for any level of undergraduate programs. The program is recognized as an affordable Criminal Justice degree online, with courses in Criminal Justice and Criminology. The CJ degree should prepare students for a wide range of career options, including DEA or FBI agent, Police Officer, Juvenile Detention Officer, Legal Researcher, Crime Analyst, etc.
