Housing & Residence Life FAQ:

- WHO WILL BE MY ROOMMATE ?

A: The student AND preferred roommate completes the housing application at the same time/date, or has one assigned to them via the Housing Coordinator. Requests for roommates must be mutual. If you do not have a roommate request, we will assign you a roommate based on the information you provide to us in your housing application/contract.

- WHAT IS PROVIDED IN THE RESIDENCE HALL ROOMS?

- A: Each room has a bed, desk, chair, and a chest of drawers, closet, or wardrobe for each student, if there is a shared room. Each room is equipped with cable television, ethernet, and wi-fi internet access.

Housing & Residence Life FAQ:

• WILL STUDENTS BE ALLOWED TO CHANGE ROOMMATES, IF THERE IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM?

A: Yes, in the event that there is an issue, the Hall Director (ARD or RD) will determine the outcome in the best interest of the students with a mediation between all parties involved, and may result in a change of room assignments, if rooms are available.

• WHAT ARE CO-ED HALLS?

A: Co-ed Halls include both male and female students in a residence hall. Females are in one section/hall/floor of the building, and males in another. All halls are monitored and supervised by Community Staff.

Housing & Residence Life FAQ:

- WILL STUDENTS BE ALLOWED TO CHANGE ROOMMATES, IF THERE IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM?

A: Yes, in the event that there is an issue, the Hall Director (ARD or RD) will determine the outcome in the best interest of the students with a mediation between all parties involved, and may result in a change of room assignments, if rooms are available.

- HOW CAN STUDENTS/RESIDENTS GET INVOLVED IN THE RESIDENCE HALLS?

A: The Residence Hall Association (RHA) represents all residential students; represents the campus on regional and national level, and plans and organizes programs. Each hall has a Hall Council that serves as an advocate for resident concerns, plans, and organizes activities for residents.

L.E.A.D. & Man In The Mirror: Assisting and mentoring young women and young men within the Residential Communities while developing skills to become prominent leaders within their classes and communities.

Housing & Residence Life FAQ:

•HOW DO I CHANGE MY MEAL PLAN?

A: All students living on campus are automatically enrolled in the All Access Meal Plan. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors living on campus, or in University Place Apartments (UPA) can change from the All Access Meal Plan to the 240 Block Plan or the 140 Block Plan during the first 2 weeks of the semester through the Bronco (One) Card Office.

•WHAT IF I HAVE MAINTENANCE PROBLEMS?

A: You can submit a work order online via the Residence Life webpage under the Maintenance tab. In EMERGENCY SITUATIONS, please contact the Community Front Desk IMMEDIATELY.

OCM.COM

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Fayetteville State University OCM website. On the left is the university logo. In the center is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'Product'. On the right are icons for user profile and shopping cart, and a 'Supported by OCM' logo. Below the navigation are four menu items: 'DORM LIFE', 'GIFTS AND CARE PACKAGES', 'GRADUATION', and 'SALE'. The main banner features a student sitting on a bed talking on a phone while holding a large box of snacks. The text on the banner reads: 'STUDY. SNACK. SLEEP. REPEAT.' in large teal letters, followed by '@Home or @School — Keep Their Study Snacks Stocked!' and 'Stay Put, We'll Ship Directly to You & Your Student!' in teal. A purple circular callout says 'FREE STANDARD SHIPPING with code: FREESHIP'. A teal button at the bottom says 'Order Today'.
