

How to park legally - every time

- Display a current parking decal or parking permit in the proper location on or in your vehicle
- Park in a legal space; Not in reserved, no parking, visitors, or along curbs
- Obtain prior authorization for special situations

Who is required to purchase a parking decal?

All full and part-time faculty and staff are required to purchase a valid parking decal. All students who drive and park a vehicle on the campus of Fayetteville State University (FSU) must purchase a valid parking decal. If you are a student at FSU, and also work part-time at FSU, you are required to purchase a student parking decal and park in student parking.

Are parking decals transferable to another vehicle?

Parking decals are not transferable. If you drive a new or different vehicle permanently or on a regular basis, please come to the Mitchell Building, 1st window on the right and link your vehicles to your current parking permit.

Where do I place my parking decal?

Parking decals must be affixed to the rearview mirror or driver's side of the dashboard. A vehicle is not considered registered until the parking decal is properly displayed on your vehicle.

Refund Policy

There are no refunds for parking decals.

Where can I park?

- Student parking lots: CS, F, G, H, K, N, O1, Q, W, Y, Z
- Staff parking lots: A, B, C1, C2, D, E, F, H, I, J, L, M, N, O, P, PP, S, T, U, V, W, X, Z
- Visitor parking lot: Along W. T. Brown Drive across from the E. E. Smith Administration Complex \(Barber and Collins Buildings\).

Visitor Parking is for visitors only, even when on campus and not in class.

Faculty, Staff and Students are still required to park in their designated parking lots even when classes are not in session.

For further information, please read the Traffic Rules and Regulations issued with the purchase of your parking decal or on the Police and Public Safety website to view a copy of the campus map.

Prior Authorization for Special Situations

Campus Police understands that there are circumstances that will occasionally require parking in a non-parking area.

Campus Police will work with you to accommodate special parking situations. Drivers must receive prior authorization before parking in a non-parking area for any period of time.

Information needed when obtaining a temporary permit includes the following: valid drivers license, vehicle make and model, vehicle tag number information and a contact telephone number.

Authorization is typically provided in the form of a special parking permit, but short-term authorization may also be granted through a phone call to the Campus Police Office at 910 (672-1552).

If you drive a different vehicle

Parking anywhere on campus during hours of operation requires the display of a valid parking decal or parking permit. If you've arrived on campus you should stop by the Campus Police Office locate in the Mitchell Building before parking to pick up a free temporary parking permit. This includes both staff and students.

Picking up a temporary permit will require only about a minute of your time, so you will not be delayed in reaching your destination.

Information needed when obtaining a temporary permit includes the following: valid drivers license, vehicle make and model, vehicle tag number information and a contact telephone number.

If you cannot stop by the Campus Police Office before parking, you cannot legally park in a campus lot.

How to arrange parking for a guest/meeting

Faculty and staff who are scheduling meetings involving off-campus guests should contact the FSU Parking Division at least two days before the meeting date or sooner at 910-672-1552 or email the request to Marny Marsh at mmmarsh@uncfsu.edu.

Information needed: Name, date and time of event, number of parking spaces requested (can not reserve an entire lot) and vehicle information if possible. A confirmation email will be sent to the requestor.

Parking spaces will usually be blocked with an orange cone.

Load or unload

Although loading/unloading is a legitimate, ongoing need throughout campus, this need is not recognized as an excuse to park in a prohibited or reserved area.

If you need to load/unload from an area that is not a parking space (curb), you must contact the Campus Police Office and request permission.

Overnight Trips

Where/How to Park

Staff and students who leave campus on an overnight trip as either the driver of a fleet vehicle, the passenger in a fleet vehicle, or as a participant in a "road-trip" or other group activity may need to leave a vehicle on campus. Staff may leave their vehicles in staff lots and students may leave their vehicles in student lots. Fayetteville State University and the Campus Police Office assume no responsibility for vehicles left on campus overnight.

- The driver of a fleet vehicle may park in the parking space of the fleet vehicle they will be driving.
- Passengers cannot park in the fleet vehicle parking space.

Permits

- Dealer Permit – Is issued only to those individuals who are car dealers and can provide such documentation. Persons who are issued this permit must purchase a current parking decal.
- Handicapped Permit – Is required by staff and students to park in handicapped parking spaces on campus. This permit must also accompany a valid state handicapped placard, registered to the driver of the vehicle. This permit will only be issued to those who have a valid handicap registration card issued in their name. You may not use another person's handicap placard to park in handicapped parking.

- Special Parking Permit – Is required to park in designated parking areas/lots usually not authorized by a person's parking decal. These permits are only issued to those who have documented special needs. Examples: medical conditions, domestic violence, etc...Special parking permits do not authorize or allow individuals to park in handicapped spaces or violate any other traffic rule or regulation.
- Temporary Parking Permit (Staff and Student) – Is required to park on campus, even if you drive a different vehicle other than the vehicle you have registered with the Fayetteville State University Department of Police and Public Safety.
