

BIO – Leslie Evelyn, Ph.D.
OFFICE OF SPONSORED RESEARCH AND PROGRAMS

Director

Name: Dr. A. Leslie Evelyn

Status: FTE Permanent/EPA

Degree: Ph.D. in Applied Physics-Materials Science

Training: Contracting with Industry; Business Development Pricing Strategies & Program Management; Contract Cost Principles and Procedures; Cost & Price Analysis in Government Contracting; SRA: Managing the Legal & Regulatory Research Landscape, Leadership, Research Integrity, Research Law, The Practice of Research Administration and Management

Experience: 10+ years in grants & contracts management & research administration

Responsibilities: Provide supervision and leadership of the Office of Sponsored Research and Programs and staff, overseeing office operations inclusive of compliance with federal, state, and university regulations and management of office staff to ensure productivity, efficiency and timeliness of all office operations. Facilitates and administers the pre- and post-award grant/contract/nondisclosure agreements (NDA)/teaming agreements (TA) preparation and submission for the university. Serves as liaison between the university's researchers/scientists/engineers/staff and external funding agencies (both private and government); advises and assists FSU faculty and staff with process and compliance issues related to funding agency regulations and standards; oversees adherence to FSU's administrative, fiscal, and accounting policies and procedures related to grant/contract proposals as well as related to all NDA/TA; assists faculty and staff in developing proposals; and coordinates and monitors post-awards. Assists the Associate Vice Chancellor in establishing policies and procedures governing sponsored research and working with an advisory research council.